

National Training Institute

for Jewish Educators and Youth Professionals

June 13-14, 2010

The Corners

2075 Walnut Lake Road

West Bloomfield, MI 48323

Registration is limited to twenty-five participants

Program fee is sliding scale

Participants will learn:

- ★ How to design and facilitate workshops on diversity and GLBT inclusion for faculty, staff, youth, and parents in Jewish educational institutions.
- ★ How to support youth leaders to create inclusive communities.
- ★ How to use the Hineini DVD, Curriculum Guide, and other resources to create GLBT-inclusive educational programs.

“ What Keshet has created is a must for anyone concerned about making each child feel safe to learn in all of our education environments. This is not just about GLBT inclusivity – this is reframing the way we look at constructing educational spaces and should be mandatory for every teacher, educator, counselor and youth worker in the Jewish community. ”

- Naomi Less, Lead Consultant, Addressing Evaded Issues in Jewish Education, Jewish Theological Seminary

Questions? Contact Judy Lewis, Executive Director, Jewish Gay Network of Michigan 248.432.5661, jlewis@jccdet.org

Keshet's Hineini Education Project is supported by: Arcus Foundation, The Bronfman Youth Fellowships in Israel Venture Fund Charles & Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation, The Covenant Foundation, Estelle Friedman Gervis Family Foundation, Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund, The Hadassah Foundation, Lesbian Equity Foundation, The Morningstar Foundation, Natan, The Nathan Cummings Foundation, The Samuel Bronfman Foundation, Slingshot Fund, and the Ziegler Family Trust

Working for the full inclusion of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender Jews in Jewish life
JGN • 6600 West Maple Road, West Bloomfield, MI 48322 • www.jgnmi.org • 248.432-5661

